The GNSO and the GNSO Council

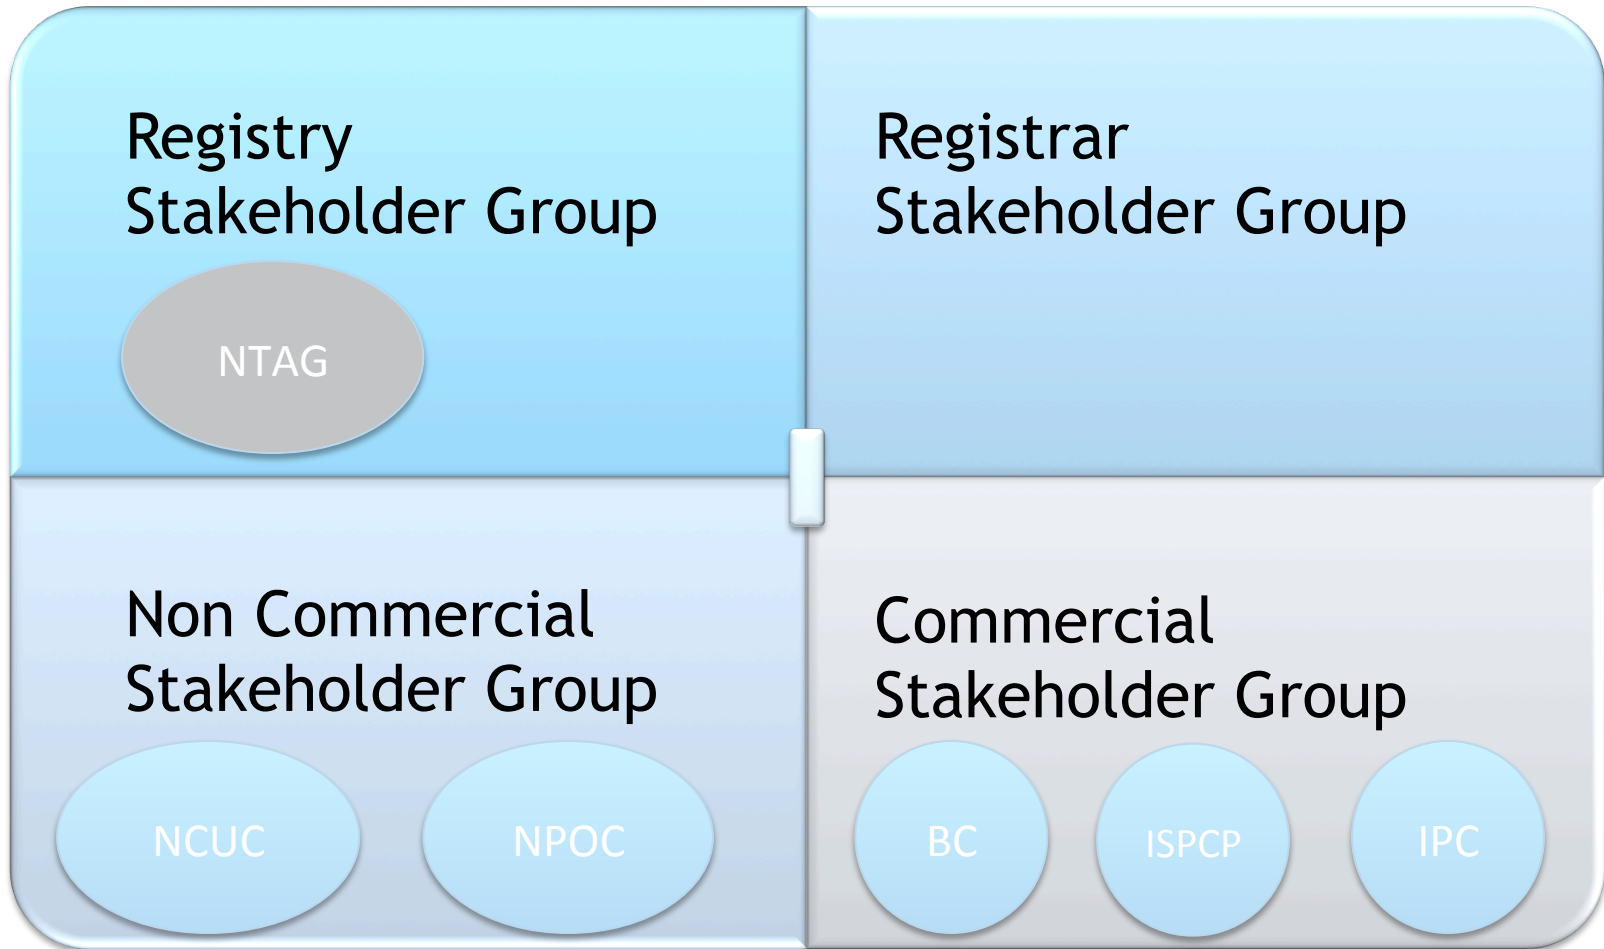

- Generic Names Supporting Organization
- GNSO is responsible for policy development related to generic Top Level Domain (e.g. .com, .net, .info, .museum, .pro)
- 21 Councilors from 6 different constituencies / Stakeholder Groups & Nom Com appointees

Structure of GNSO

GNSO Community Structures

GNSO Council - How do we work?

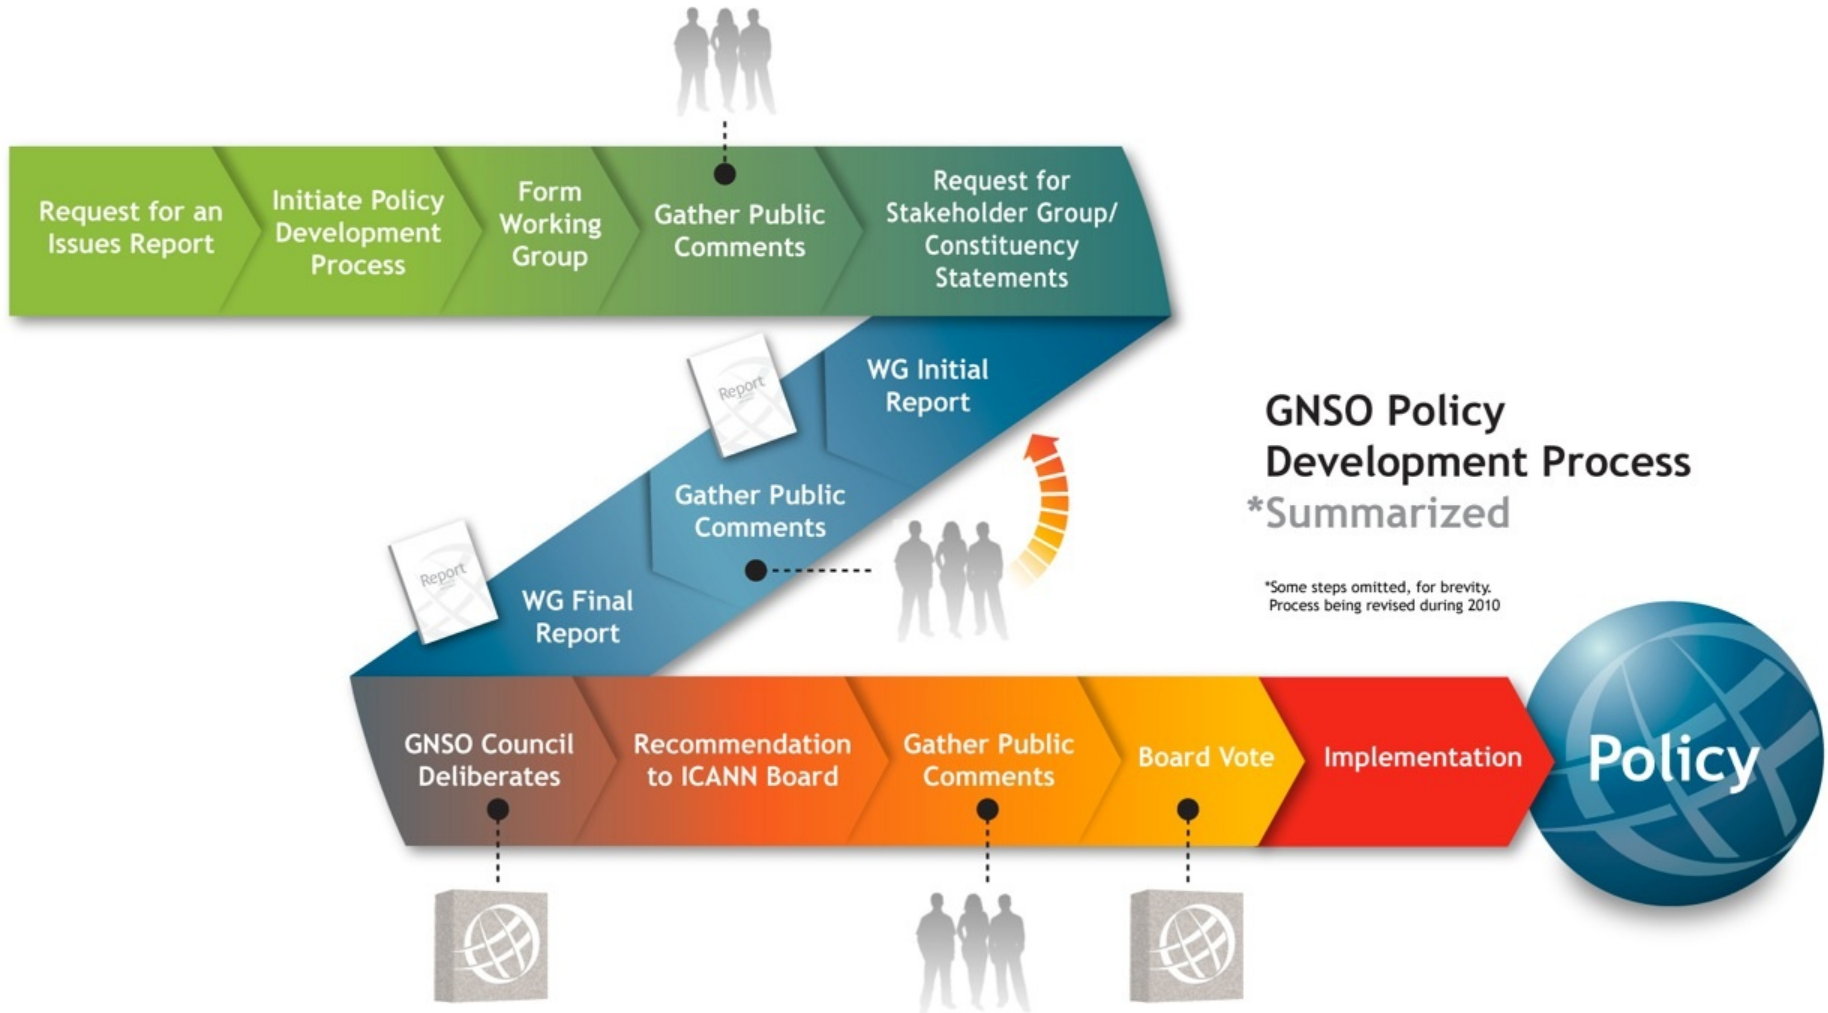

- Manager of the policy development process
- Meetings usually once per month - Typically two hours
- Decisions typically made through formal motions. Submitted 10 days in advance of a meeting
- Policy work undertaken in open working groups

GNSO Council - How do we work?

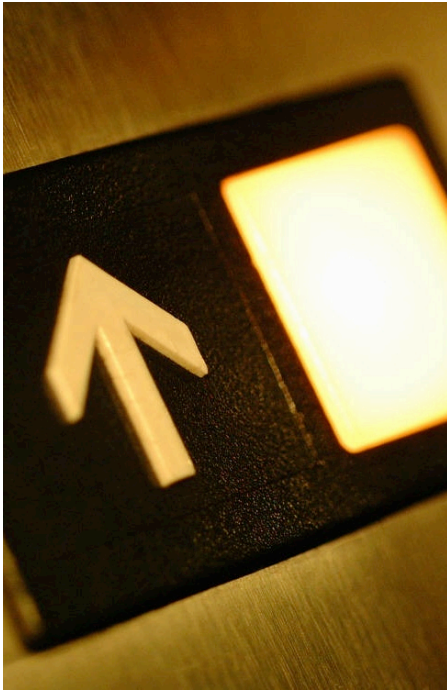

- Councilors expected to attend every Council meeting. Attendance is recorded
- If a Council member cannot attend a meeting, he/she must inform the GNSO Secretariat before the meeting
- Proxy / Alternates may be appointed in case of absence
- Council members spend, on average, 2–10 hours per week on Council work.
- Intensity increases as each of ICANN's three annual public meetings approaches

GNSO Council – Manager of the PDP

Focus on continuous improvement

- Induction & training
- GNSO PDP Improvements & Streamlining
- Standing Committee on Improvements Implementation
- Anticipate the GNSO Review
