

National Arbitration Form Uniform Rapid Suspension System

Kristine Dorrain
Director, Internet and IP Services
kdorrain@adrforum.com

How to Use This Demo

- It's best if you watch this as a PowerPoint Presentation, as there are arrows and boxes that will pop up to point things out, but if you can't, that's fine too.
- Some slides have detailed information in the Notes. Regardless of how you view the Demo, please review the Notes Pages.
- Contact us if you have procedural questions. We cannot tell you if you have a good case or what your best options are, but we can tell you how to access our portal!

The Uniform Rapid Suspension System

- Costs are low; this system relies upon users to do a lot of “self-service” and upon automation of routine document transmission.
- Interaction with our portal is required
- Case coordinators are still available as a resource.
- Validation at filing means the system won't work until there are new gTLDs in the root. We have work arounds in place in case our vendor can't get the new gTLDs in fast enough.

Other Requests

- Requests all work the same way. If an option does not show up in your portal, it's not available to you.
 - Withdrawal: Complainants move to withdraw, if Complainant indicates it's a joint w/d, then the Respondent will be asked to log into its portal to join.
 - Stays: Must be joint. Either party may request one prior to a first Determination. The second party must log into the portal and agree to the Stay within 24 hours.
 - Extensions: Can only be requested by Respondent.

Determinations

- Default

- Final

- In addition, the Registry (Registrar cc'd) will receive an email with a copy of the Determination and instructions.

Appeals

- Screens are the same.
- Who can appeal?
 - A losing party with a Final Determination.
 - A complainant with any determination that finds abuse or material falsehood.
- What do I file with an Appeal?
 - For a minimal amount, you can just have the same pleadings submitted to a new panel. Appellant gets a few words to tell the panel where the error was.
 - For more money, you can submit new arguments; Appellee then gets to reply.

Thank you.
