(IPC Representative)

Brian Darville
Chair Task Force 3
Intellectual Property Constituency Representative

I am partner with the law firm of Oblon, Spivak, McClelland, Maier & Neustadt, P.C., an intellectual Property law firm based in Alexandria, Virginia. In my law practice, I represent intellectual property owners, primarily in trademark, domain and copyright disputes, including domain name disputes resolved via the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Process (“UDRP”) as well as in federal court under U.S. trademark law and the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act. Such cases often involve addressing the accuracy of WHOIS data and locating accurate data when inaccurate or false data has been provided.

I am also a member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association (“AIPPLA”), which is a member of the Intellectual Property Constituency (“IPC”). I am involved in the IPC on behalf of the AIPPLA. I am the IPC’s designated representative to Task Force 3.

I receive no funding or compensation for any participation in ICANN and its activities.
