Mary Wong:Sorry not to get to see you, Oswaldo - definitely in Buenos Aires, with more classic tango!

Amr Elsadr:Hi. Dialling in now.

Oswaldo Novoa:@Mary, yes and I have a new selection for you.

Mary Wong:Thank you - that was a lovely CD!

Bladel>Welcome, Phil!

Philip Corwin:Thanks David. Look forward to working with all of you

Philip Corwin:Thanks you James

Philip Corwin:I will file one shortly

Amr Elsadr:I'm curious about what happens if the council doesn't approve an extension for publication of an issue report. Not that I'm objecting..., just curious.

Mary Wong:@Amr, since this particular one had a timeline that was set by the Council itself, I suppose we would have to do it by March then.

Mary Wong:And I suppose that would be true for any other prospective project ...

Dan Reed:Sorry, I jsut arrived -- connection issues here in Barcelona

Amr Elsadr:@Mary: Thanks.

Mary Wong:Sure thing!

Donna Austin, RySG:Jonathan: the ccNSO/GNSO breakfast does conflict with the women in DNS breakfast

Cheryl Langdon-Orr:sadly that B'fast meeting will h the ccNSO. clashes with my regular DNS Women's b'fast event. but I will run between them I guess

Mary Wong:Yes it does

Heather Forrest (IPC):Will we have an update on GNSO Review from Westlake?

Cheryl Langdon-Orr:scheduling is nightmare understand

Volker Greimann:If you want any topics to be included, please raise them soon as we need to provide them in a timely manner

Amr Elsadr:@Heather: Yes..., good question.

Mary Wong:Their findings are slated to be presented in Singapore

Avri Doria:anyone who has ever done scheduling knows it is among the hardest things to do .

Mary Wong:Wednesday morning

Volker Greimann:only by providing topics can you ensure that the topics of interest to you will be covered

Heather Forrest (IPC):Do we have any more clarity on when Westlake report will be published?

Volker Greimann:This goes for the meeting with the GDD, with Fadi, with Theresa and with the Board.

Heather Forrest (IPC):Thanks very much, Mary.

Marika Konings:The meeting of the GNSO Review Working Party:

<https://www.icann.org/news/announcement-2015-01-27-en>

Marika Konings:We'll get an update for you

Volker Greimann:While we have some time on Saturday to finalize the schedule, that will not be enough time to draft the schedule. Also, to allow them to prepare, we should have the general list before the meeting starts. Ideally this week

Marika Konings:I've just forwarded you the latest message to the GNSO Review Working Party which provides further updates on the schedule and next steps.

Thomas Rickert:Agreed, Avri!

Marika Konings:that belongs to the IANA Stewardship Transition entry - it looks out of place as there are no lines ;-)

Amr Elsadr:Thanks Marika. Yes, it'd be helpful to have at least some of them there.

Amr Elsadr:@Jonathan: +1

Heather Forrest (IPC):Jonathan - that very issue was discussed in the Intersessional

Volker Greimann:I think that is a good idea, Jonathan

Heather Forrest (IPC):Fadi was receptive
