

CyberSafety Constituency (CSC) Overview: 2009

Presented by: Cheryl Preston

1 - 6 march 2009

Purpose of CSC:

- To represent non-commercial Internet users interested in balancing free speech and anonymity with protection and safety
- To contribute to the consensus model of policy development
- To assure that ICANN policies do not unduly impair the lawful rights of governments and other organizations of authority protect their Internet users from illegal activity conducted on or through the Internet.

Targeted Member Groups:

- Law Enforcement
- Family Groups
- Primary Education Groups
- Feminist Groups
- Cultural Organizations
- Religious Groups
- Children's Advocates
- Academic Institutions and Researchers

CyberSafety Constituency:

Chief Technologist, Berkeley Center National Laboratories

Professor of Law, Southern New England School of Law

Lecturer, Faculty of Mass Communication, Modern Sciences and Arts University (in Conjunction with MiddleSex University, London)

President, Build-a-Bear Community Foundation

Professor of Law, Hamline University School of Law

President, Internet Keep Safe Coalition

Assistant Professor of Law at CA Western School of Law, San Diego

Associate Professor, Computer Science Dept

Assistant Professor Boston College Law

Professor of Law, Brigham Young University

President, Girls Against Porn

President, CP80 Foundation