1.00 - DAILY EXCURSIONS

AH 01- NAIROBI CITY TOUR (2 HOURS)

This guided Nairobi City Tour includes visits to the stately parliament buildings and the colorful city market, where everything from tropical fruit and authentic handicraft items are on sale at a bargain price. Drive through our city in the sun, taking in the sights...parks, old and new buildings, and people of all races...until you reach the historic museum and the snake park not forgetting the August 7 memorial park.

Per Person US$145

AH 02-NAIROBI NATIONAL PARK (4 HOURS)

There is no better way to spend an afternoon than exploring this unspoilt wildlife haven, just 13km from the center of Nairobi. Although small, this park contains most of the major animal species (except elephant) you definitely will not miss seeing plenty of Giraffe, Zebra and Antelope. Before leaving the National park parameters, pay a visit to the nearby Animal Orphanage

Per Person US$185

AH 03-KAREN BLIXEN AND GIRAFFE CENTRE (4 HOURS)

The former home of "Out of Africa" Karen Blixen is now a museum. Visit, and just imagine yourself in Kenya during the days when she was a pioneering coffee farmer. You will understand why she felt so strongly about this land and its people. Later, drive on to the Giraffe Centre where one can feed the Rothschild Giraffes.

Per Person US$145

AH 04-THE CARNIVORE EXPERIENCE (3 HOURS)

Lunch or dinner at the Carnivore Restaurant is a gastronomic experience not to be missed. As the name implies, the carnivore is famous for its succulent steaks and mouthwatering barbecued game meats. The restaurant is equally enjoyable for its ambience and festive atmosphere.

Per Person US$75

AH 05 - HANDICRAFTS AND BOMAS OF KENYA (4 HOURS)

Kenya's cultural center is a celebration of traditional dancing from all over Kenya and the other parts of Africa. Also visit authentic "bomas" (village homes) created by the different tribes. Afterwards continue to Utamanduni craft Centre to watch the weavers at work, or simply browse through all the colorful craft shops.

Per Person US$75

AH 06-LAKE NAKURU

Pick up from your hotel and drive across the floods of the Rift Valley to lake Nakuru arriving in time for lunch.

After lunch drive to lake Nakuru for afternoon of game viewing drives.

Lake Nakuru is a shallow alkaline lake on the edge of the town of Nakuru lies about 160 kilometers north of Nairobi. It can therefore be visited in a day tour from the capital or more likely as part of a circuit taking in the Masai Mara or Lake Baringo and East to Samburu. The lake is world famous as the location of the greatest bird spectacle on earth - myriads of fuschia pink flamingoes whose numbers are legion, often more than a million maybe two. The park now has more than 25 rhinos, one of the largest concentrations in the country, so the chances of spotting these survivors are good. There are also a number of Rothschild's giraffe, again translocated for safety from western Kenya beginning in 1977. Waterbuck are very common and both the Kenya species are found here. Among the predators are lion and leopard, the latter being seen much more frequently in recent times. The park also has large sized python snakes that inhabit the dense woodlands, and can often be seen crossing the roads or dangling from trees....

Later this afternoon drive back to Nairobi arriving early in the evening.

Per Person US$280
---------------------------

AH 07- LAKE NAIVASHA

Pick up from your hotel and drive across the floods of the Rift Valley to lake Naivasha arriving in time for lunch.

After lunch explore this lake on foot or take an optional boat ride around the lake.

Lake Naivasha is a beautiful freshwater lake, fringed by thick papyrus. The waters of the Lake draw a great range of game to the shores. Giraffes wander among the acacia trees, buffalo wallow in the swamps and Colobus monkeys call from the treetops while the lakes large hippo population sleeps the day in the shallows.

Late afternoon drive back to Nairobi

Per Person $170

AH 11 – 1 1/2 DAYS –ABERDARE NATIONAL PARK

Day 1: Nairobi to Aberdare National Park, Kenya

0830hrs Depart Nairobi and drive north through pineapple and coffee plantations, to your "base hotel" arriving in time for lunch.

Afternoon transfer in Club Transport to your Tree hotel.

Overnight floodlit game viewing from the viewing decks. A ground level bunker provides excellent photographic opportunities and takes you closer than you would believe possible to the wildlife.

The Ark, Tree Tops and Mountain Lodge are all lodges situated in the heart of the Aberdares National Park and overlook a waterhole and salt lick, which attracts different species of wildlife.

There are several game viewing areas from which to observe the wildlife. There is a ground level hide where you'll literally come face to face with animals. If one of the 'Big Five' arrives at the waterhole you can hear a buzzer in your room.

Dinner and overnight at your tree hotel [L, D]

Day 2: Aberdares to Nairobi, Kenya

After breakfast return to the base hotel where you will rejoin your driver guide for a drive back to Nairobi arriving just before lunch where the tour ends [B].

Special remarks:

Children below 7 years are not admitted at the Tree hotels.

Only an overnight bag is permitted at the tree lodges owing to limited space in the cabins.

Cancellation Of Services – By Purchaser

AH must be notified of any cancellations in writing. If notification is received 90 to 60 days before commencement of our services, a cancellation fee of 25% of the price of these services is assessed.

If notification is received between 60 and 30 days prior to commencement of our services, the cancellation fees of 50% of the total cost of these services will be assessed.

If notification is received 30 days or less before commencement of our services, the cancellation fees of 100% of the total cost of these services will be assessed.

Cancellation Of Services Initiated by AH

While doing our utmost to avoid cancellations, we must reserve the right to cancel arrangements. If this should happen (other than due to your default in meeting the scheduled payments) we would offer the choice of an alternative arrangement:

- ❖ Paying or receiving a refund in respect to any price difference or receiving a full refund of all monies paid.
- ❖ If an arrangement is cancelled because less than the required number of people have booked a scheduled tour, notification will be given no less than 60 days before commencement of our services.
- ❖ If we are forced to curtail a tour or services after departure due to circumstances amounting to 'Force Majeure' we cannot make any refunds or pay any compensation or be responsible for any costs or expenses incurred as a result.

Changes

AH reserves the right to make changes to offer details and holiday arrangements both before and after your booking is made. If AH have to make significant changes to an arrangement, you will be notified at the earliest possible opportunity.

If such changes occur you will have the choice of either accepting the change or booking alternative arrangements such as:

- ❖ Paying or receiving a refund with respect to any price difference
- ❖ Receiving an immediate full refund of all monies paid.

Force Majeure

'Force Majeure' means those circumstances where our performance on your behalf is prevented or adversely affected by reasons of war, threat of war, strife, industrial dispute, governmental actions and all similar events beyond our control. In these circumstances we shall not be liable to pay any compensation or otherwise be responsible for any expense or losses you might incur where we are forced as a result to cancel, delay, curtail or change your arrangement in any way or where the performance of our contractual obligations is prevented or affected.

Insurance

CONFERENCE DELEGATES ARE STRONGLY RECOMMENDED TO PURCHASE COMPREHENSIVE TRAVEL AND CANCELLATION INSURANCE, for protection against trip cancellation, unforeseen medical expenses, personal accident, lost luggage, emergency medical evacuation, etc., and a host of other potential happenings associated with travel. This coverage should be secured at the time of deposit to protect the client's interests and monetary investment in the program.

The client agrees to indemnify AH, against all third party claims, actions, damages or remedies that may be brought against AH, with respect to their participation in the conference and related services.

Complaints

Complaints about any of our ground handling services and safari arrangements the client may have, must be brought to the attention of AH Guest Relations Staff or a representative of AH, at the time, so that they may use their best efforts to rectify the situation.

Acacia Holidays Ltd, 1st Floor, Furai Court No.5, Argwings Kodhek Road
P. O. Box 4347 --00506, Nairobi, Kenya
Tel. Nos: +254-20-2733700/ 2101401
Email: Info@Acaciaholidays.com
www.acaciaholidays.com

Should the problem remain unresolved, a complaint must be sent in writing to AH within 30 days after the conclusion of the said service.

Refunds will not be made for any missed services, except for verifiable extenuating circumstances.

For verifiable claims to be considered, they must be received in writing within 7 days of the termination of the of the program and must be accompanied by supporting documents and or a statement from the supplier used, verifying the claim.

Any adjustments considered will be based on the actual price of the services involved and not on a per diem basis.

AH will not accept any liability for any claims that are not received within 7 days of the termination of your travel program.

General

Please note our responsibilities and obligations apply only in respect of those services, which we agree to arrange or provide on your behalf as the "Ground Handling Agent". AH cannot accept any liability for any services, which you arrange on your own, or have arranged by another travel agent, tour operator, or anyone other than AH.

Entry and Health Regulations

Visitors must be in possession of valid visa and health documents on arrival in Kenya. Different regulations are applied according to nationality and country of origin of the delegates and these should be checked with the nearest tourist office or diplomatic mission.

Diplomatic mission/Kenyan Embassy or inoculation centers in the country of origin will provide information and health regulations and recommendations.

Customs and Exit Regulations

Personal effects, film and cameras may be imported temporarily free of duty. However, a customs bond may be required in connection with professional video equipment, tape recorders, radios, musical instruments and souvenirs from other countries to ensure goods can be taken out of Kenya.

Firearms require a special permit, which must be obtained in advance.

Excess baggage is strictly monitored and charges are readily applied by the airlines when specified weight limitations are exceeded.

Customs officials normally inspect baggage on arrival into Kenya and departure from Kenya.

Immigration

All delegates must be in possession of a valid passport. Visa requirements vary from time to time and are dependant on the nationality of the delegate. Since it is essential that no delegate arrive without the correct documentation, visitors are strongly recommended to check the latest requirements either from the airline offices or through the nearest tourist office, Embassy or High Commission.

Most nationals visiting Kenya require a visa, and this can be obtained either pre-departure or at the point of entry at a cost of US$50 per person. Delegates will not permitted to take up work or residence in Kenya without the authority of the Principal Immigration Officer.

Photography

Film is readily available in Kenya. Before taking pictures of the local people, permission should be sought and if necessary, a price agreed on with the person[s] to be photographed. The driver guide should be able to assist in these instances.

Law in the country prohibits taking photographs or video filming of the following areas: Military bases, State Houses or any Armed Forces Base.

Food & Drink

As a general rule, quotes are based on bed and breakfast in Nairobi, half board at the coast and full board whilst on safari. Standards of cuisine are very high offering a selection of European, African and Asian styles of food.

Drinks selections are good with premium brands and imported wines readily available. Tap water in Nairobi is often potable but water for drinking is generally provided by hotels and clients are advised to drink this or bottled water which is widely available.

Acacia Holidays Ltd, 1st Floor, Furai Court No.5, Argwings Kodhek Road
P. O. Box 4347 --00506, Nairobi, Kenya
Tel. Nos: +254-20-2733700/ 2101401
Email: Info@Acaciaholidays.com
www.acaciaholidays.com

Local Laws

All participants in tours operated by AH are expected to obey laws and regulations of the country(s) visited and any failure to do so will relieve BGA of all obligations that they may otherwise have under these booking conditions.

Currency

Country regulations prohibit the export of local currency. There is no restriction on the amount of foreign currency a visitor may bring into Kenya. Only authorized dealers are allowed to exchange money.

Language

The official language in Kenya is English, which is taught at all schools and is widely understood. The national Language is Swahili.

Climate

Much of Kenya enjoys a comfortable climate with warm sunny days and cool evenings. Due to the high altitude of most safari itineraries, the atmosphere is usually pleasantly dry except at the coast, which can sometimes be very hot and humid. Because Kenya is on the equator, the sun is very strong and visitors are advised to take necessary precautions against potential sun damage to the skin.

There are two rainy seasons, usually from April to end of May and from November to early December. Even during these periods, the weather can be pleasant with rain early in the morning and late in the afternoons and fresh clear sunny periods in between.

Medical Advice

Kenya enjoys a healthy; invigorating climate and visitors should have no concern for their general health during their stay. However, malaria is endemic in certain areas of the country and anti-malarial medication should be taken according to prescription recommendations.

Visitors requiring special medication should pack sufficient supplies in their carry on luggage. Chemist shops (drug stores) are well stocked but the name of the specific generic medications requested may not be readily available.

Filtered and bottled drinking water is available throughout Kenya.

There are excellent hospitals in Nairobi and Mombasa.

Blood is screened for the HIV virus using the most modern equipment.

There are also very good dentists and opticians available in Kenya.

Clients are strongly advised to obtain Comprehensive Medical and Travel Insurance before coming to Kenya.

AH will also strongly recommends the Flying Doctors Service for delegates taking any of the overnight pre & post tours.

AH will be able to facilitate the joining to the Flying Doctors Service membership

Security

Despite some well-published isolated incidents, Kenya is a wonderful and exciting destination for visitors. Delegates should take the same care as they would normally take in any other destination worldwide.

Keep a close watch on your handbags, wallets and cameras when walking in crowded places. Avoid walking at night and try to stay in a group for normal security reasons.

Place your valuables in the hotel/lodge safety deposit boxes for safe keeping whenever possible.

All delegates will be provided with a 24-hour telephone contacts for the Kenya Tourist Federation Safety & Security Center and also a contact for HA Representative for any emergencies.

Electricity

The electricity supply in Kenya is 240 volts and visitors should bring an international adaptor/converter for any electrical appliances they have.

Time

Kenya is three hours ahead of the Greenwich meantime [GMT]

Flight Bookings

The itineraries and prices published are for the land portion of the safari only. There is a wide choice of airlines offering services to Kenya and East Africa as a whole and we have found it best to allow our travelers the flexibility to choose the flight that suits their individual preferences. If you would like us to find flights for you, please enquire at the time of booking.
